Certified Healthcare Interior Designer

About Me

Hailing from Central Texas, I design spaces shaped by a love of the outdoors and an appreciation for layered, human-centered environments.

With a strong technical foundation and hands-on experience in commercial interior finish-outs, I bring both creativity and constructability to every project. My work spans healthcare, manufacturing, and corporate environments across multiple jurisdictions.

I specialize in translating complex requirements into thoughtful, functional spaces that support the people who use them every day. Through close collaboration with architects, engineers, and contractors, I've developed a detail-driven approach grounded in real-world building practices.

Leadership

Principal/Owner

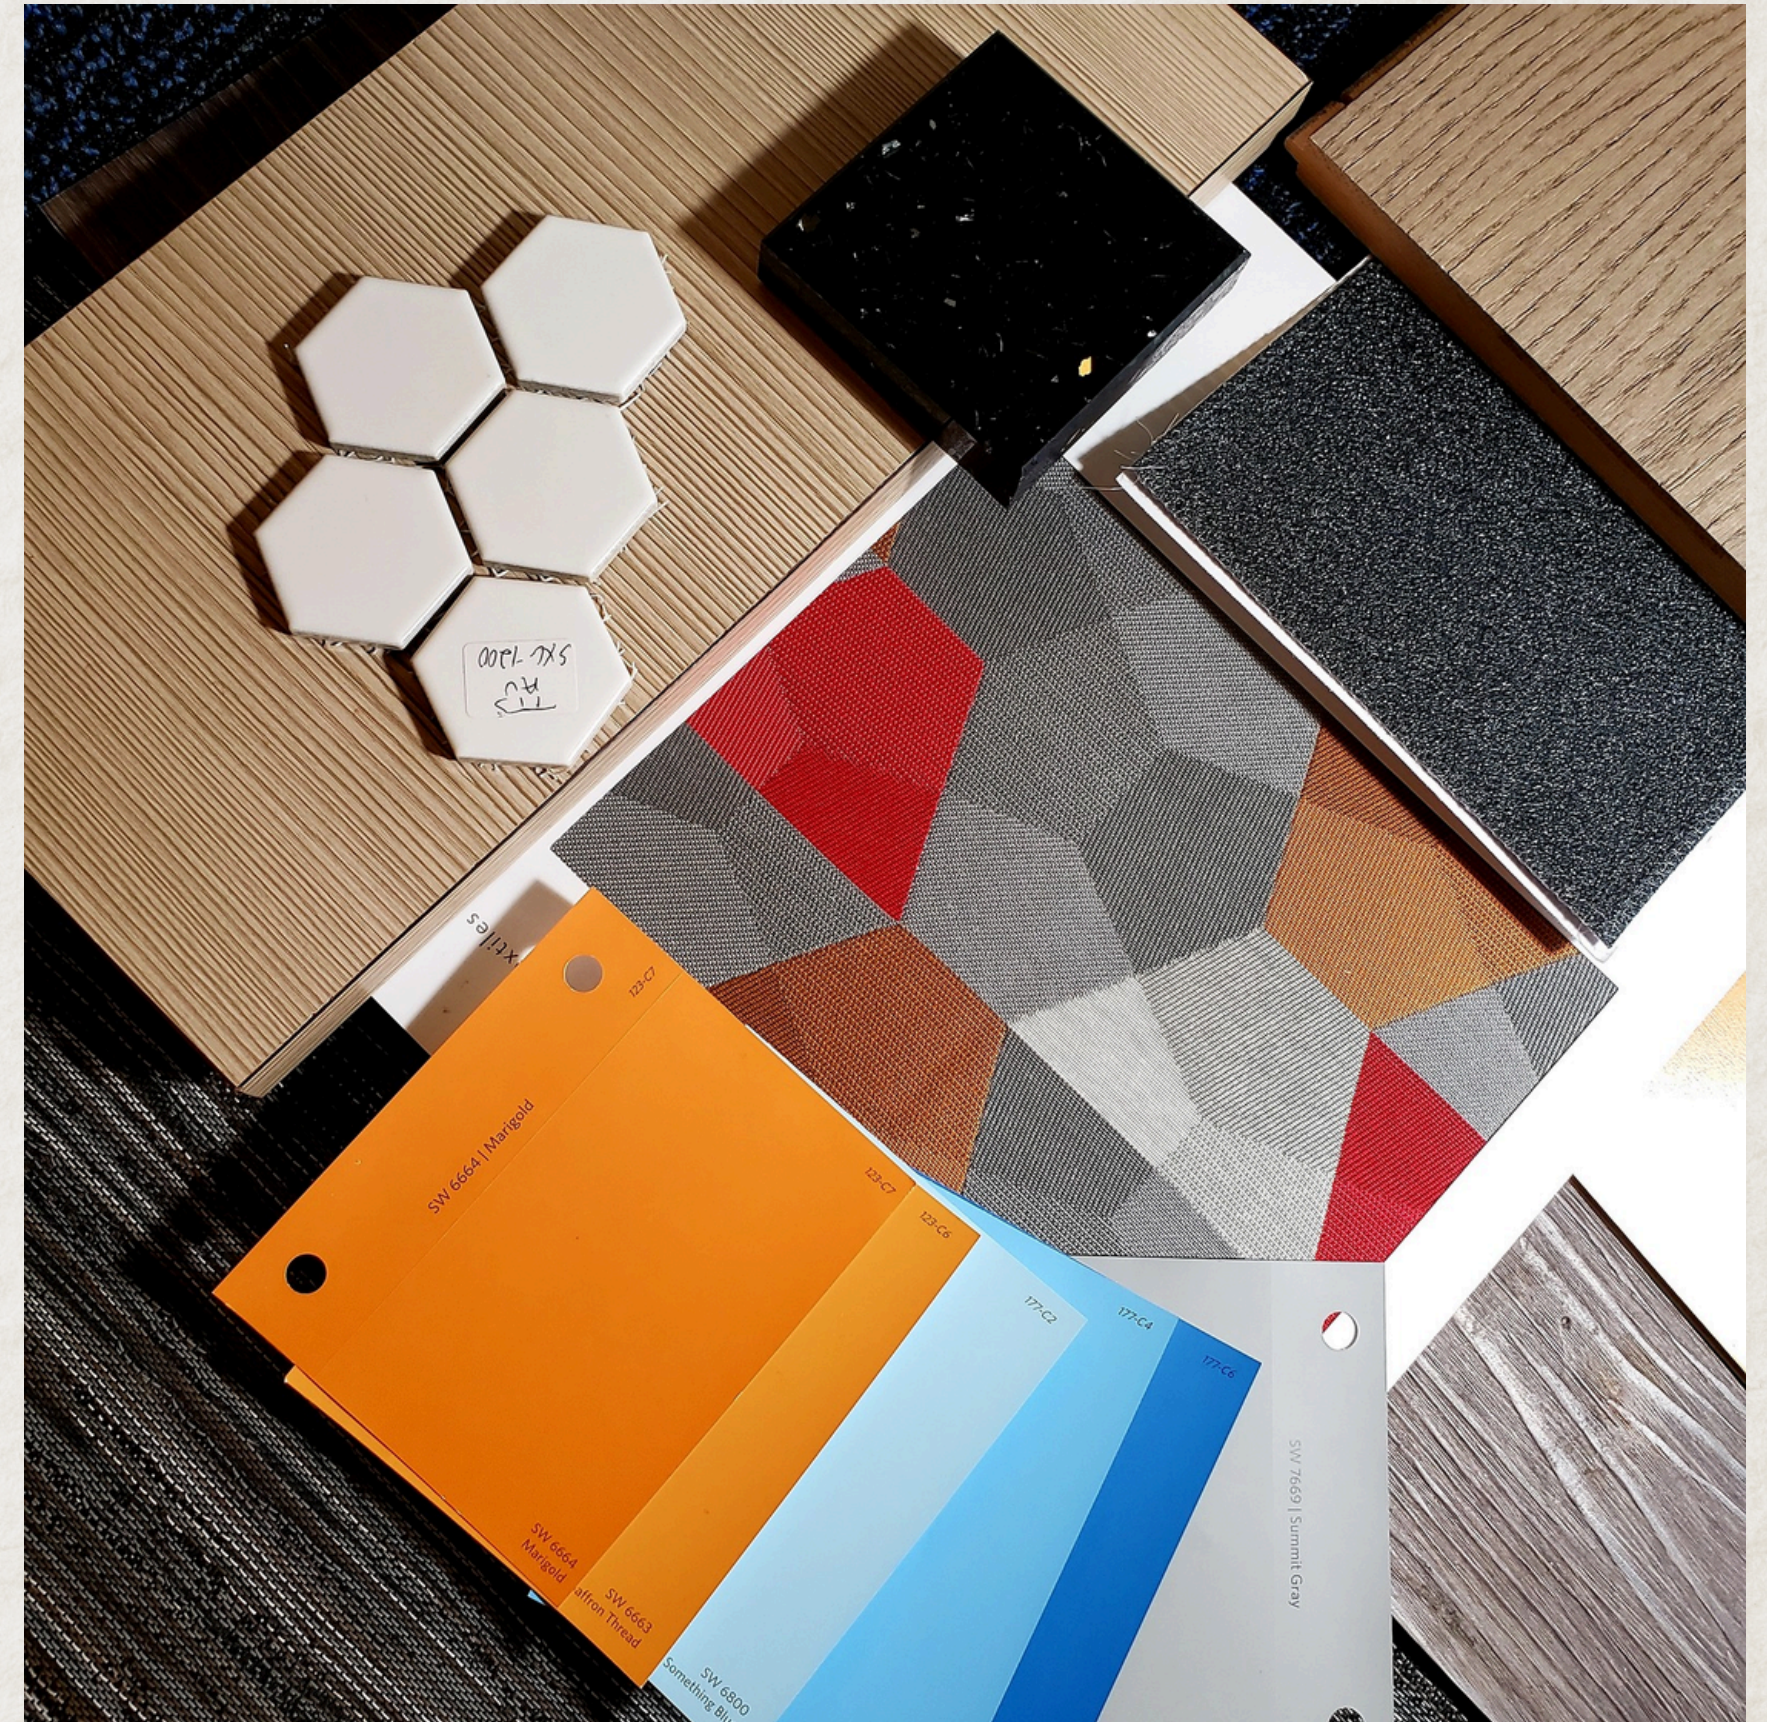

RossParson Industries, LLC | 2022 - Present

Providing industry professional support through drafting, planning, internal project management, and coordination with specialized knowledge in life safety code requirements and healthcare design.

Director of Healthcare Interiors

Provided primary support and direction for a small, talented group of healthcare interior designers, specializing in clinical and wellness spaces. Provided guidance and code support to other teams in the company, primarily through production and permitting.

Women's Health Texas

Clinical Design | Austin, TX

Concept

An elegant, human-centered clinic designed to support the full spectrum of women's health needs through softness, light, and local identity.

Role

Interior design, planning, and coordination under S. Tipton Studio

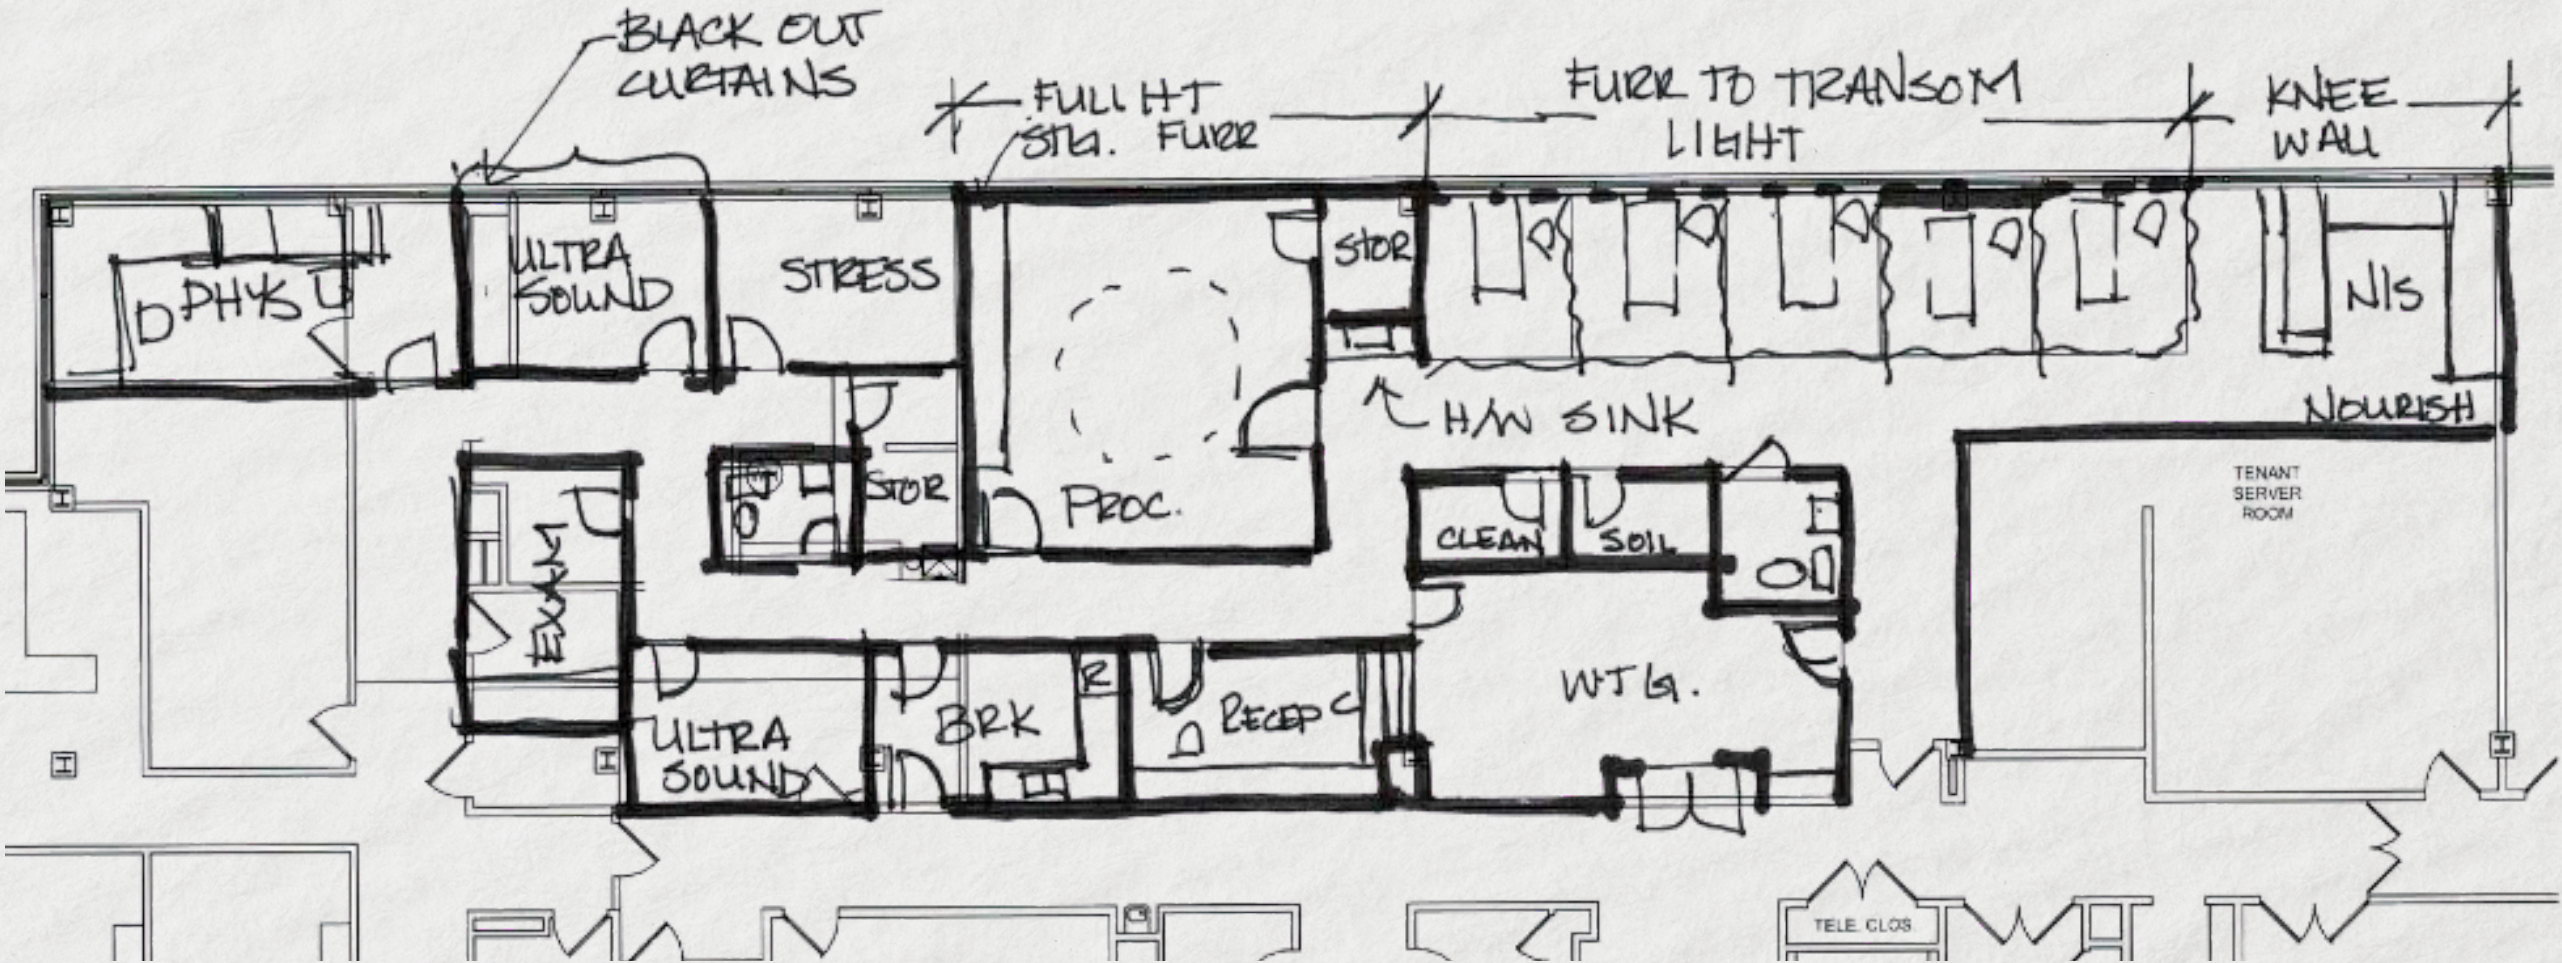

Key Moves

- Introduced curved forms, wood slats, and blown glass art to elevate the aesthetic and soften the environment
- Partnered with local artists and women-owned businesses to shape identity
- Designed a welcoming layout that balances clinical efficiency with patient comfort.

2026

Women's Health Texas

Kind Clinic

Clinical Design | Austin, TX

Concept

A culturally affirming healthcare space designed to provide safety, dignity, and accessibility for LGBTQIA+ patients.

Role

Interior design and planning under S. Tipton Studio

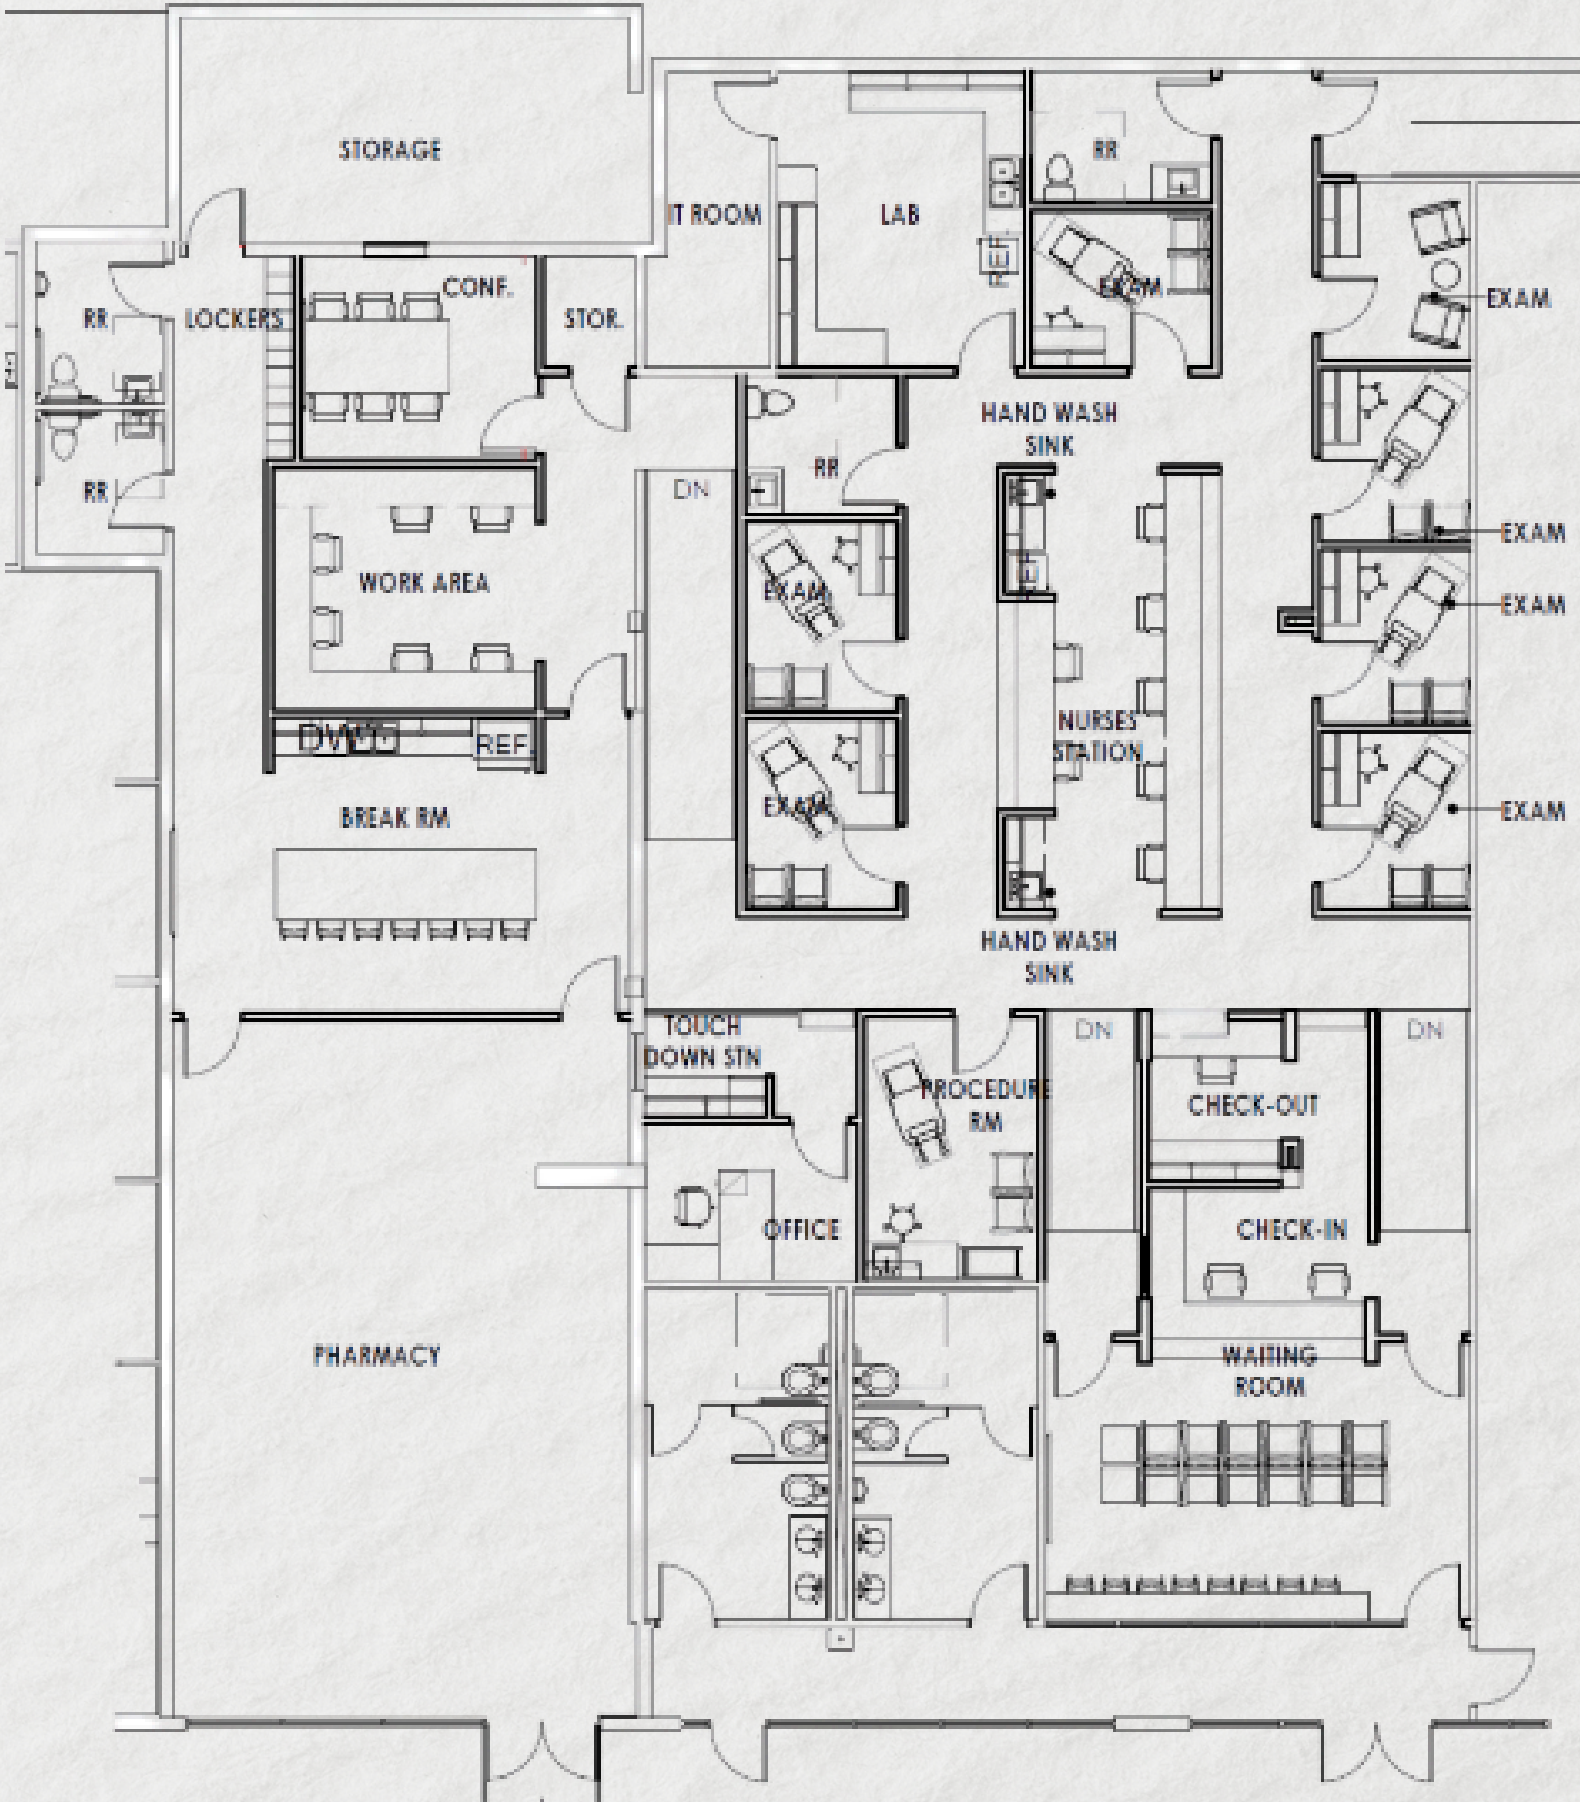

Key Moves

- Transformed an existing vacant shell into a secure, modern clinic
- Used cool tones and warm wood to balance approachability and professionalism
- Supported flexible care spaces for both clinical and mental health services
